

BOOK CLUBS & WRITERS GROUPS

Barbara Frum Branch

20 Covington Road, Toronto, ON M6A 3C1

Tuesday September 25, 2012
7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Room A

Read the book and discuss it at the Barbara Frum Book Club meeting.

Bride of New France by Suzanne DesRochers

The debut novel by Canadian author Suzanne Desrochers tells the historical tale of Laure Beausejour who dreams of using her needlework skills to become a seamstress and marry a nobleman. But in 1669, she is sent across the Atlantic to New France (Canada) as a filles du roi. Rumours of life in New France tell of a terrible climate and dangers from all sides. They turn out to not be rumours.

For more information and to register, call (416) 395-5440

torontopubliclibrary.ca

THE BARBARA FRUM DISTRICT BLOG!

Q: What is it?

The Barbara Frum District Blog is an online space where you can access event information and stories about your very own neighbourhood – from libraries to community centres and other not-for-profit organizations.

Q: Why use it?

- To participate in discussions that concern your community
- To receive stories and updates of event information that may interest you
- To express your opinion on library and community issues
- To receive recommended library resources and programs

Q: Where is it?

You can find it on the web! Visit our blog at home, at work or in the library:

www.tpl.ca/bf-blog

Remember to subscribe to the RSS feature, which enables you to receive blog updates without having to search for them.

You can identify an RSS Feed with this icon

Barbara Frum Branch
20 Covington Road
Toronto, ON M6A 3C1
416-395-5440

torontopubliclibrary.ca