RESEARCH GUIDES

The Business, Science & Technology Department, Toronto Reference Library, maintains a few research guides on a variety of business topics. Each guide identifies library resources of relevance in a variety of formats: books, magazines, electronic resources.

These two guides may be of interest to researchers of older Canadian companies:

Researching a Canadian Company

Researching a Canadian Industry

The Humanities and Social Sciences Department, Toronto Reference Library, also maintains a few research guides on a variety of topics related to their department.

These two guides may be of interest to researchers of older Canadian companies:

City Directories

Telephone Directories